son is to have entire charge of the setting and rigging, without interference from Mr. Malone. It is Mr. Windrim's impression in regard to the duties of the Superintendent of Construction that he should merely supervise and inform the department of errors or bad work, and not that he should assume charge of the work and draw plummet and level on every stone and brick.

draw plummet and level on every state brick.

This also disposes of Mr. Malone's assumed prerogative of dismissing workmen at pleasure and the appointment of others of his own choice, as in the case of the foreman of rigging. The discharged foreman is new in this ciry and may possibly be reinstated, it is believed at the department that things are now taking such shape that the work on the building will go on as well as under the late Superintendent, Mr. Patterson.

QUAY'S HAND VISIBLE.

The first tangible evidence of Senator Quay's presence in the city came to-day in the ap-pointment of Thomas T. Penman, of Wilkespresence in the city came to-day in the appointment of Thomas T. Penman, of Wilkesharre, internal Revenue Collector for the Twelfth Pennsylvania district. Mr. Penman is an energetic young Republican who has been Chairman for some time past of the Luzerne County Committee. Ex-Congressman Scranton and Congressman Eiret Wright wanted Lancer, of Mr. Scranton's paper, the Scranton Republican, and ex-Congressman Osborne backed Miller, another active Republican of Wilkesbarre, Scranton and Wright succeeded in getting Senator Quay to indorse Lancer, but the fight became so bitter that Secretary Windom advised taking a new man. Osborne got wind of the movement yesterday and telegraphed a request that nothing be done until he could confer with the Secretary, but Quay, Scranton and Wright combined this miorning on Penman and pressed the case so hard that the appointment was made while Osborne was still en route.

While Mr. Osborne may not be wholly pleased with his treatment, it is thought the appointment will be quite popular with all factions. Senator Quay remained most of the time to-day quietly in his rooms, going out only to accompany his son, the Lieutenant, to the railway station, and start him for his post at Fort Hill.

ANXIOUS ABOUT HAYTI.

The Department Has Ordered Another War Vessel to the Island.

WASHINGTON, June 13 .- All applications at the State Department for informa tion respecting the contents of the cablegram received yesterday from Havti are met with a pointed refusal, the officials even declining to make the negative statement that there was nothing alarming in the news. Secretary Tracy, however, was willing to say that the dispatch did not reveal the existence of a dameerous state of affairs at Hayti, but anhinted that it told of renewed fighting between the factions on the island.
Commodore Ramsay, of the New York Navy Yard, had a long private interview with the Secretary of the Navy this morning. Secretary Tracy has ordered the Kearsarge to proceed at once to Hayti. She will carry with her admiral Gherardi. It was the original intention to send the Boston on this mission, and she could make the trip in about half the time that will be taken by the Kearsarge, but the latter has been substituted because the Boston is what is technically known as a "fever ship," and it would be hazardous to again expose her to yellow fever. hinted that it told of renewed fighting between

WASHINGTON, June 18 .- There is the highest authority for the statement that there is oundation whatever for the story published in New York this afternoon that Secretary Blaine had ordered the American commissioners to withdraw from the Samoan Conference unless more concessions are made. A CASE THAT FAILED

Some Seasntional Disclosures Stop a Trial

That Was in Progress. CHICAGO, June 13 .- A suit for $25,000 damages against the Chicago and Eastern Illinois Railroad terminated in a sensational fiasco in Judge Anthony's court to-day. Mrs. Anna E. Bailey, the claimant, claimed to have received severe spinal injuries in the explosion of a locomotive of the Momence accommodation near the Polk street depot, Chicago, in February, 1887, and was supported in her evidence by her brother and Mrs. Frances B. Foreman. The defense produced Frances B. Foreman. The defense produced evidence that the railroad ticket which Mrs. Balley exhibited in court had really been furnished her weeks after the accident by a detective of the railroad. Mrs. Balley having made repeated requests for a ticket of a date previous to the explosion. Letters were also produced wherein the claimant agreed te pay a man named Smith $100 and a Dauville man a like amount for certain false evidence which they were to testify to in the case.

Mrs. Balley was so thunderstruck as to even fail to deny the authenticity of the letters to which her signature was attached. Her attorneys, Wood and Willetts, renounced the case openly in court, and Judge Anthony requested the State's Attorney to present the matter to the grand jury and ask for indictments against Mrs. Balley, Mrs. Foreman and Nathaniei B. Baldwin, the brother, for perjury.

NEW YORK, June 13 .- The complaint of O'Donovan Rossa against P. S. Cassidy, for libel, was dismissed to-day by Police Justice Smith in the Court of Special Sessions. INTERCAL TELEGRAM TO THE DISPATCH.

WASHINGTON, June 13.—The colored Republicans of the South were recognized to-day by the appointment of ex-Congresssman Robert Smalls, of Beaufort, S. C., to the office of Collector of Customs at Beaufort. This is supposed to offset in a way the injury done to Smalls in depriving him of his seat in the Fifty-first Congress, which was accomplished by the apasthy of many Republican Congressmen, who secretly preferred a white man's Congress, and by the fillbustering of the Democrats whenever an attempt was made to call up the case.

There was absolutely no doubt of Mr. Smalls honest election. His campaign and subsequent contest were exceedingly exponsive to him, and really took almost the last penny of his resources. The Collectorship will therefore come to him as timely relief. It pays $1,000 a year and fees are allowed to the limit of $2,000. Cantain Smalls was indorsed by every business man except two in Beaufort and surrounding towns.

A LETTER TO MALONE.

Superintendent Malone, of the Pittsburg Postoffice building, has by this time received a letter from the Supervising Architect of the Treasury informing him that Foreman Johnson is to have entire charge of the setting and rigging, without interference from Mr. Malone. It is Mr. Windrim's impression in regard to the duties of the Superintendent of Construction and violation of the constitution of the con

Rosa said the statements of Labouchers were false. Cassidy intimated that he would get after the publisher of the United Irishman for circulating matter inciting to assassination.
